

14.04.02 Nuclear Physics and Engineering

State Regulation of Nuclear Safety and Security

Program objective

To train highly qualified specialists for providing and regulation nuclear safety and security of nuclear facilities whose specialized knowledge and practical skills allow to ensure and develop legal framework of national and international nuclear industry.

Program's competitive advantage

- main approaches, mechanisms and tools for nuclear cooperation
- national and international system of norms and regulation ensuring nuclear safety and security
- activity of national and international institutions ensuring nuclear safety and security.